

Woodpen's Annual Christmas Lunch and AGM, November 28, 2015

136 Woodpen's members turned out for the event.

John and Sharon Bishop. John announced that he is retiring as President of the Woodpen's Club. John has been President for many years and has worked tirelessly to "keep the spirit of Woodward's alive". He has been instrumental in writing material for the Hot-Line as well as organizing the club's activities. A job well done John and we all wish you a happy retirement.

Bill Lawrie is slated to be our next President

Shareholders of Woodward Stores in 1947.

John Hopkins pointed out his picture in 1947.

Doug Paul and Leo Querin. Doug won the 50/50 and he also became a Woodpen's director after being nominated by Bill Chernoff.

Turkey dinners were served and enjoyed by members.

Jim Laurence with members

Ernest Chan with Bill Chernoff and Spouse

Woodpen's executives enjoying a break after a successful event.

